An aMEISing Project!

An open forum: redesigning the MEIS
from the student's perspective:

The students of the Advanced English Workshop warmly invite all fellow students, teaching staff and administrators of the School of International Studies to a presentation and discussion on How to enhance the 'aMEISing' experience!

The presentation will outline some critical issues identified by the students and their proposals to address these concerns. The open discussion will offer participants the opportunity to comment, offer suggestions and present their views on future developments of the Master's program.
